

Edleston Primary School's Ethos and Values.

We aim:

1. To be an inclusive school and to put into place the practice in all aspects of our work that ensures that all learners are given equality of opportunity and treated fairly.
2. To promote and achieve high standards for all by providing teaching and learning of the highest quality.
3. To treat learners as individuals and to differentiated teaching and learning to take account of their individual and special needs.
4. To provide well for learners' physical, mental, social, spiritual, moral and cultural needs.
5. To provide well for learners' Care, health and safety.
6. To ensure we prepare our children for their future and understand British values.
7. To ensure that all learners benefit from a rich, broad, balanced curriculum presented in an interesting, exciting and imaginative manner with lots of opportunities for first-hand experience, practical work, investigation and learning through play in the early years.
8. To teach basic skills and core subjects well and to give great emphasis to the foundation subjects and RE.
9. To make connections between subjects and to apply basic skills across the curriculum.
10. To enliven and enrich the curriculum by visits, visitors, and extensive use of the environment.
11. To give responsibility to learners and develop their self-confidence by contributing to the community.
12. To make parents and the wider community equal partners with the school and to involve them in the evaluation of its success.
13. To build an ethos marked by a welcoming, friendly, bright and lively happy place where learners feel secure. A school where good behaviour is expected and where learners enjoy growing up.
14. To make this school a place of enjoyment where success is encouraged, rewarded and celebrated.
15. To embed PSHE across the curriculum so our children know what is right and wrong and understand what it is to become good citizens.
