February Newsletter

We have had a fantastic start to the New Year and we are enjoying getting to know all our new families. All of the new children have settled in well and are making lots of friends. Thank you to all the parents who have been recommending ABC to their friends and family, we really appreciate your support.

This month we say “Happy Birthday” to Sarah at ABC Edleston for 5th February.

Here are a few reminders:

- For our funded pre-school places we have a “50p fund”. To help enhance your child’s learning we like to provide as many different types of arts and craft material as possible. We would be very grateful for voluntary contributions of 50p per family per week towards these items.
- February invoices have been issued. Our terms and conditions state that payment is due at the start of each month or every Monday if we have agreed to weekly payments. A late payment fee of £30 will be added to accounts that are not paid on time.
- After-School Club parents - please make sure you let a member of staff know if your child is attending a club at their school before attending ABC so that we can make a note of this.

Topics and Themes for February:

Half term for our pre-school children is Monday 19th - Friday 23 February.

Our 3 ABC settings have similar themes each month. February might be the shortest month but we have a lot to fit in! This month we are looking at - Why is the sky blue? What do I celebrate? What special things do me and my family do? Then at the end of February - Mary, Mary quite contrary, how does your garden grow?

Three of the books we will read during this month are - “Why is the sky blue?” by Sally Grindley, “Chopsticks” by John Berkeley and “Jasper’s Beanstalk” by Nick Butterworth.

We will also celebrate Shrove Tuesday, Valentine’s Day and Chinese New Year.

ABC Out of School Club News:

We are currently putting together our February half-term itineraries for the ABC Holiday Clubs. These will be emailed and given out to you shortly. Both of the holiday clubs will run from Monday 19th through to Friday 23rd February.

We work with the children’s ideas to carefully plan our holiday clubs to offer the children entertainment, play and relaxation throughout their holiday days.

If you need childcare over the half term and haven’t yet booked in then please call ASAP.
